

Game boy

Anybody has a lovely gameboy
It is just used to smile
Anybody has a lovely game boy
It just does steels the time

To lose, to cry, to throw a tantrum
But he will never stop anyway

then he grooves, he smiles, then he thanks the sky
for cheating his way through the gate

Chorus

Anybody has a lovely gameboy
Shake that game boy and everybody say
(say yeh)

Anybody has a lovely gameboy
It is just used to smile
Anybody has a lovely game boy
It just does steels the time

To lose, to cry, to throw a tantrum
But he will never stop anyway

for cheating his way through the gate

Chorus

Anybody has a lovely gameboy
Shake that game boy and everybody say
(say yeh)
