

Never Wanna

Coz she never wanna Never wanna play the game coz
It's easier for the others

But she always wanna Always wanna stay again coz
She likes to be with the others

And she never gonna Never gonna start to blame coz
It's easier for the others

She just always wanna Always wanna fall in love

Where ever she goes
She knows what she needs
No matter what she wants another

Coz he never wanna Never wanna be the same Don't wanna be like the others

Coz he never wanna
Never wanna be insane coz
He might disturbe the others

Coz he never wanna
Never wanna start the game coz
He's afraid to be the looser

He just always wanna
Always wanna fall in love

Where ever he goes
He knows what he needs
No matter what he wants another they never wanna take the time they live in a dream (living in a dream)

yeah
they never wanna make a smile (searching in a dream) they're searching in a dream
yeah
they never wanna take the time because in their soul (because in their soul) they're waiting for the only one they gonna love for all (gonna love for all)

some day they just gonna they just gonna understand that the game is now over

And maybe they gonna gonna listen to each other not caring about the others

And maybe they gonna Maybe they gonna like to mate and Make it better for the other

They maybe never gonna Never gonna leave this love
