

Away to stay

1er verse

I've seen you laugh and smile
I wanted you by my side
In my quest of the power of love
My baby I loved you so

But you always changed the rules
And I was forced to choose
I've tried but now I want to go

Chorus

Oh baby let me get away
Away, away to stay
I got to make it on my own

2er verse

I've seen you down and crying
Just rambling on your sighing
No conversation, just a monologue
Oh baby you hurted me so

T'was like talking to a wall
T'was like hearing a crying hound
I have heard but now I have to go

Bridge

Baba' I didn't wanna lie
All was clear couldn't deny
I wanted to feel free
Thing impossible by your side

So I went away with the tide
Taking feelings I couldn't hide
Go on and cry
For life, away I won't shy

Chorus

3eme verse

I see you down and crying
Don't want you by my side
In my quest of the power of love
Another one stands at my door

One who doesn't change the rules
One who doesn't make me choose
One who doesn't fear to loose
